

BASKETBALL CLINIC FOR WOMEN!!!

A one-day fun and instructional camp

Featuring:

Kara Wolters

UCONN Great and Olympic Gold Medalist

“...in 1995 she won the NCAA Championship, playing for UConn, with a 35-0 record. She went on to become one of only six players in the world to have the elusive "set"-NCAA championship (1995), the WNBA championship (1999) and an Olympic gold medal (2000). Kara also won a gold medal for the USA Jones Cup Team (1996); won a gold medal for the USA World University Games Team(1997), and a silver medal in 1995. She played on the US National Team in 1997-98 and 1999-2000. She also won a European championship with her pro team in Schio, Italy.” (from www.karawolters.com)

AND THIS JUST ANNOUNCED:

In April 2008, Kara will be inducted into the Connecticut Basketball Hall of Fame!
